Reason why this is a winning entry:

(please add additional pages if required)

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY:

1. The competition is only open to financial members of an Affiliated Association of Master Painters New Zealand.
2. In entering the Awards a member is declaring that they have remained clear of any upheld workmanship or Code of Practice breaches in the preceding 12 months and are not aware of any circumstance that they are involved with that may damage the reputation of the Association or the Awards.
3. Members may nominate their own projects or a third party may nominate them.
4. Only projects completed in the preceding period 1 January to 31 December will be considered.
5. Entrants must provide at least ten (10) colour images of their project to enable the initial judging panel to determine whether the entry warrants on-site inspection. Failure to provide images at time of entry may result in loss of marks or the projects not being considered by the Judges.
6. Each category entered will incur a fee of $120.00 plus GST ($138.00 inclusive). This must accompany each entry.
7. Entries can be submitted throughout the year up to the close off date.
8. If the entry fee does not accompany the application or is not direct credited, it will not be considered. GST receipts will be issued.
9. Entry fees do not include costs of attending the Gala Dinner.
10. Not all projects will be physically inspected. Selection of projects for inspection is solely at the judges' discretion. A member or members of the judging panel will visit projects selected for inspection.
11. Judging procedures and decisions will be entirely at the judges' discretion and no correspondence will be entered into.
12. Entrants must ensure that the project owner's permission is given for the project to be inspected by the judges. Additional permission may be sought from the owners of Award winning projects for publication and publicity.

(The Awards presentation will be made at a Gala Dinner to be held at a time and location advised by the National Association).

Entries Close at 5pm the last business day of February.

Entries should be forwarded to:
